

Our fall seasonals will make you want to clutch your pint glass with both hands while wearing a cozy sweater, and they're available through the end of December.

As the days get short, the nights get long and the temperature drops, one thing is on everyone's mind: pumpkin. But don't worry—this is no dessert in a glass. The Gourdgeous Harvest Ale is a returning favorite, gently flavored with subtle spice and rich malts that will give your body and soul that autumn glow. Until Oct. 14, use the coupon code X at checkout for 20% off to fill your fall fridge with Gourdgeous.

Seasoned with Jamaican allspice, Gourdgeous will warm you from the inside out. And Willamette hops and rich malts leave you with a full and lasting mouthfeel, perfect for warm nights by the fire or raking leaves on a brisk day. The gourd-less Gourdgeous has a pleasing orange hue that will put you in the mood for pumpkin pie—without feeling like you're drinking it. Pair it with poultry, pork, roasted vegetables or winter squash for a cozy table you'll want to share with your loved ones.

Looking for more fall beer? Whether you're cheering for the touchdown or binge-watching Game of Thrones, our Smokey Lonesome Rauchbier is the perfect companion for all your autumn activities. This German amber lager features Beechwood smoked malt; clean, mild Hallertau hops; and a slightly sweet finish. With hints of woodsmoke balanced by a crisp lagered profile, it's the essence of fall in a glass.

If you like your beer dark as the early sunset, the Otis Oatmeal Stout is the drink for you: It's a rich, robust blend of roasted barley, specialty malts and full-bodied flavor. Packed with Simpson's Golden Oats for a creamy texture, this black-as-night brew boasts bittersweet chocolate and toasty espresso notes that you'll want to curl up with. Wrap up in a blanket with a pint of Otis and a good book, and stay warm as the falling leaves turn to winter snow.
